A CRM Made Simple

Eliminate Duplicate Data Entry with Tupelo

Profile

Established in 2020, Tupelo is a CRM for business brokers. We integrate with third parties to eliminate repetitive data entry so brokers can spend more time deal-making. Our straightforward, intuitive interface is easy for anyone to pick up and begin optimizing their operations.

Who We Are

George Wellmer is a co-founder of Tupelo. With over a decade of experience working with owners, intermediaries, and the SBA, George started Tupelo to help business brokers focus on building relationships while we support operations.

Zac Wellmer is a co-founder of Tupelo. He previously ran a team that used AI to optimize manufacturing processes and his PhD research was in machine learning. Zac is a NACVA 30 under 30 award winner, having been recognized for his software development contributions.
